new Presbyterian Church. About half past ten o'clock on that evening, the cry of fire was heard and it was found that the alarm proceeded from the Church; upon entering which, the stairway leading from the first floor was found to be on fire and a large mass of shavings in a state of ignition. It was evident that it was the work of an incendiary, as no fire was used in the building at any time, and especially on Sunday, while the spot selected for the perpetration of the deed was the only one from which a flame might ascend to the second story. The injury sustained by the church does not extend farther than the destruction of the part of the plank partition of the stairway, but a slight inspection will serve to show the deliberate design of the incendiary, and the almost miraculous preservation of the building.

HIRAM POWERS, THE ARTIST.

We had the pleasure of visiting this gifted genius in his room a day or two ago, and had thus an opportunity of seeing the busts he has taken of several of the distinguished men of the day. Among the rest was one of Col. Preston, which struck us with peculiar force. The likeness is true to the life.

Mr. Powers is a young man of very great promise, and we have seen great injustice done him in a District paper. The day will come when his genius will add a lustre to the American arts, and confer an honor upon his country .-- U. S. Gazette.

PERFORMANCES. Mucklejohn, Jr. was partially trained in the fall of 1830, then 3 years old; but only suffered to run sufficient to test his speed and to try his future promise. Fully trained the next season, and on the 26th of October, 1831, he won the Jockey Club purse, $80, at Pineville South Carolina, two mile heats—beating Col. Richardson's b. f. Lapruelle, 4 years old, and, Col. Sinkler's c. Van Barch, same age. (Time not stated—said to be very quick.) After this race he was exercised with an unmanageable filly, who, in defiance of the efforts of her rider, constantly took the lead, by which means he soon became accustomed to look for a leader, and to stop when he saw nothing in advance of him-and on the 21 of December, 1831, on the Stateburg Course 4 mile heats, purse $300, ran into the crowd near the Judge's stand at the close of the third mile, while far in adanvance of Col Sinkler's br. c, Van Buren, Col. Time 8 min. 20 sec .- 8 min. 21. sec.
